Moon, for some years past proprietiers of the Ivy Green saloon, on Merchant street, adjoining the City Hall buildings, committed suicide on Sanday afternoon by shooting herself through the heart. The ball was discharged from one of Colt's new patent pistols, and lodged in the body. The immediate circumstances connected with this melancholy tragedy are as follows: On Sanday afternoon about 2 o'clock Mrs. Moon was last seen alive, writing a letter in the rear room where a domestic was known to be skeeping, and after walking round it in the midst of the blinding and suffocating smoke, found her lying insensible and partly dressed. She was conveyed over the roof and lowered into the lane beneath by meane of a rope. A number of adult servants and bell-boys who slept near each other escaped at the first alarm, but two of the latter, by some means were at first overlooked, and one of them, we are sorry to relate, died in the forenoon from the effects of his lengthened exposure to the smoke. The Hon. J. R. Giddings, American Consul, was awoke as quickly as possible, but before he could escape, he became insen-sible from the effects of the vapur and smoke the hotel.

The London Times of January 28, has an excellent leader, full of facts respecting British Columbia and the growth of Victoria. In speaking of the Mint at New Westminster, it holds the following very correct opininterval he opened the door and found the landlady lying on the floor in her usual dress of the day. Under the excitement of the moment, he ran with all haste into the Station House, but not finding the officer on data where sentices he desired, heatenal to ions touching a union of these colonies:

"But the erection of a mint at New West-minster, the capital of British Columbia, instead of at Victoria, illustrates the strange instead of at Victoria, illustrates the strange error in dividing what should have been one colony into two. Victoria is the port through which almost all the trade, not only of Vancouver Island, but of British Columbia is canducted. The miner has no business at New Westminster. It is to Victoria that he receive make this purchases, corrake this passage, and there he would gladly leave his gold dust, receiving in exchange the receipt of the Mint, which is as available for expenditure as a bank note: but this he cannot penditure as a bank note; but this he cannot do because there is no mint at Victoria, and because the jealousy between the two colonies throws difficulty in the way of a change. This is a question for the Home Government, and we should have thought that, if matters are as represented, it was just the case in which the Home Government should inter-

The following communication from Mr. McClure, in relation to probable changes in the administration of these colonies, was received by Mr. Councillor Copland, to whom we are indebted for a copy, per steamer Sierra Nerada, which arrived yesterday:-London, Jan. 31, 1863

JOHN COPLAND, ESQ—DEAR SIR:—As I men-tioned in my last, this letter is of unusual impor-tance, the Duke of Newcastle has consented to dis-miss Goy Douglas almost immediately and appoint two Governors for the separate colonies. British Columbia is to have a Legislature at once, under Columbia is to have a Legislature at once, und the new regime. Changes are also to be made the various Governmental departments in Vanco rer Island. I fear, however, that there is prospect of obtaining responsible Governme yet awhile—the Duke, like all Englishmen, afraid of the small number of our population is the start of the property of the prop Humphrey Griffith, of Yolo county, died at the Lick House, in this city, at three o'clock. He was a lawyer by profession, and has filled the offices of Disrice awhile—the Duke, like all Englishmen, is firsid of the small number of our population. However, I intend to urge the thing strongly, and as a Bill will shortly be introduced by this Government in reference to British Columbia, I have engaged a number of members in favor of granting more power to the people of Vancouver Island over the officials. At all events, we have succeeded injusting Gov Douglas, and I think Cary and the rest will have to follow suit. The thing might have been done long ago, had the people possessed sufficient sense and spirit to send a detegation. Douglas has powerful friends here, and it required much exertion to accomplish what we have done. I would not be at all surprised to find our friend Malcolm Cameron nominated to British Columbia.

CENTLEMEN,—YOU WILL SHORTLY BE called upon to exercise the most sacred rights of Britons, in selecting men of your own free will to manage your own local affairs, scrutinize and correct the course of Government, and adjuct and impose taxation. While I feel that I have no especial claims to public support, I do claim, in common with my fellow citizens, that I have enbarked my capital, brought my family, and expended some portion of my past energies here; and that in a new country like this I have a right to aspire to a position in the mangement of its public affairs. I do not seek any office of emolument—I have never done so, nor is such my aim now. I am content to earn my living independent of Crown patronage; but the honor of representing my fellow citizens is a distinction which any man might be proud of, and I aspire to that. I hold the equal rights of all men to be of the first importance in all cases of legislation, and know no distinction of creed, color, or country. Every colonist who has settled in this Colony as his future home, is entitled to equal privileges with his neighbor, and for such principles I will always contend. YATES STREET.

ill-pervicing, seed in mines, town sites and public lands, may be abolished.

There are many other public questions of great importance upon which I will speak hereafter, as they cannot be referred to within the limits of this address, but if you see fit to honor me with your confidence and support, you may rely that for neither inducements of office or patronage, no printing or other jobs will pass without exposure. And should it not be your pleasure to elect me, I will support cheerfully whomsoever you think fit to elect, so long as they follow a line of policy similar to that I have here laid down.
